

Bernadetta Janusz

Assistant professor, Jagellonian
University, Poland

Anssi Peräkylä

Academy Professor, University of Helsinki,
Finland

The leaders of the workshop are Dr. Bernadetta Janusz and Professor Anssi Peräkylä. Janusz is assistant professor at Family Therapy and Psychosomatics Department, Medical College, Jagellonian University, in Cracow, Poland. She is an experienced couple therapist, supervisor and trainer of family- and couple therapists. Her research focuses on grieving processes and couple therapy interaction. Professor Peräkylä is Academy Professor at the Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Helsinki, Finland. He is a sociologist whose conversation analytical research focuses on interaction in psychotherapy and psychiatric settings, as well as on emotions in social interaction. He is also a trained psychoanalyst.